Name	Bukola Salami
Affiliations	Associate Editor, CMAJ Faculty of Nursing, University of Alberta
Biographical details	I am a Registered Nurse and I received my PhD from the University of Toronto. I am currently an Associate Professor at the Faculty of Nursing, University of Alberta. My research program focuses on policies and practices shaping migrants health. I founded and lead the African Child and Youth Migration Network of 30 scholars from 4 continent. In 2020, I founded the Black Youth Mentorship and Leadership Program at the University of Alberta. The program seeks to socially and economically empower Black high school youths to contribute meaningfully to the society. I represent the University of Alberta on the steering committee of the Worldwide Universities Network Global Africa Group. I am involved in several community volunteer initiatives including serving as a public member on the Council of the Alberta College of Social Workers, the Public Health Agency of Canada Working Group on the Mental Health of Black Canadian, the Bell Lets Talk Funding advisory committee, and Board of the Black Opportunities Fund.
